

Pacific Water Quality Association

2008 Member

GMX International Corporation

This membership certificate recognizes your company as a water improvement organization. Members of Pacific Water Quality Association offer cost effective solutions and innovative technology to provide quality water to millions of families and businesses every day. Originally formed in 1957, PWQA provides a forum for discussion and action on regional issues of interest to the water improvement industry and consumers alike.